Cross Institutional Study Incoming- General Information

The Cross Institutional Provider Program enables students to undertake part of an award course which they are completing at another Higher Education Provider (the Home Provider) at Eastern College Australia (the Host Provider) under certain conditions. To undertake this study the student must:

- Complete General Application Form and include all required information
- Complete the Application for Cross Institutional Study – Incoming form.
- Either have Home Institution complete Section 4 or attach to the form a letter of approval from the Home Institution which states that the specific Eastern College Australia units applied for will count towards my award at that institution. The letter must include: the Course name, Institution name, fee category and the name, title and signature of the approving officer.

The units elected for Cross Institutional Study at Eastern College Australia (Host Institution) must be of equivalent standard and weighting to units at the Home Institution. The student is required to have met any prerequisites that apply for the unit.
