DECLARATION BY EDITOR

I, ____________________________________________ have provided editorial assistance to:

(Full Name of Editor)

__________________________________________________________________________ in the preparation of this assignment.

(Name of Student)

I declare that my editorial assistance has been restricted to checking and improving grammar, sentence construction and paragraph construction, checking and correcting spelling, and other changes required to ensure the paper follows the presentation guidelines set out in the Tabor College Assignment Style Guide.

I declare that all the ideas, research, discussion and content in this paper remains the original work of the student.

Signed: ..............................................................................................................

(Signature of Editor)

Editor's Address: ..................................................................................................

(Please Print Clearly)

Editor's Telephone Contact Number: .................................................................

Note to Students: This "Declaration by Editor" Form must be attached to your final submitted paper, along with the original draft of you paper which was given to the editor to edit.