FORM THE NEXT GENERATION

Eastern primarily delivers courses at its Wantirna Campus and selected units online or through a blended-model delivery.

Eastern is co-located with Melbourne School of Theology as a result of a cooperative partnership between the two colleges.

The College also teaches units and courses at a number of locations including through the CITE Alliance in partnership with top Christian Schools across Victoria.

For more information on delivery modes and study options, please contact Student Services on on (03) 9790 9200.

"GOD'S CHARACTER IS REFLECTED IN ALL AREAS OF LEARNING."

- Keren Singsit, Student

Qualified teachers are in strong demand. Teachers have job security, great career paths, and flexible opportunities to work around the world. Even more, students need you and the perspective, worldview and creative energy you can bring.

Eastern offers flexibility to make study work with your life circumstances, a vibrant Christian community, and inspiring lecturers who get to know you as a person.

You'll have the space to explore and develop your identity, character and calling, and the opportunity to integrate your faith with your teaching career.
